

CUMMINGS V. ZUILL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

AWARD CONDITIONS – APPLICATIONS OVER $1,000

- Applications over $1,000 are to be made on the prescribed form obtainable from CZuillScholarship@gmail.com
- Completed applications must be received by the following quarterly deadline dates in order to be considered. Applications received after the deadline will be considered at the next quarterly meeting.
 - May 31th
 - August 31st
 - November 30th
 - Feb 28th
- Successful applicants may attend courses and programmes, which are accredited by an acceptable professional body.
- The Committee will review all applications and may select a list of candidates for interviewing.
- The award will be made at the discretion of the Committee. The funds are to be used towards the cost of tuition. Additional related items may be funded.
- The Committee may decline to grant an award should it decide that there are no suitable candidates during any quarter.
- To be eligible the candidate must:
 - a) Have identified specific educational goals or professional career objectives which will benefit the third sector.
 - b) Have the support of a third sector organization.
 - c) On completion of their studies, be expected to be available to render services of value to the third sector in Bermuda.

Only candidates whose applications meet these criteria will be considered.
- The Committee will pay special regard to evidence of:
 - a) Qualities of character, leadership, responsibility, community involvement and dedication to achievement
 - b) Benefits to the third sector
 - c) Financial need
 - d) Outstanding scholastic ability

- The Committee reserves the right to withdraw the award if an applicant becomes involved in any activity which, in its opinion, places the prestige of the Cummings Zuill Scholarship in jeopardy and/or if the individual's cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 or its equivalent.
- The applicant must keep the Committee informed of his/her progress by submitting grades and/or transcripts as issued and other such written reports that may be requested from time to time. Failure to comply may lead to suspension or forfeiture of the award.
- The applicant may accept other awards or scholarships from other sources providing the total amount of financial support does not exceed the cost of training.
- The applicant must inform the Committee of any unusual or unanticipated personal circumstances that might affect his/her educational performance.
- The Cummings Zuill Scholarship is not obligated to pay any expenses if an applicant resits a course.
- All fees are paid directly to the institution of study unless otherwise agreed.
- The Cummings Zuill Scholarship Committee has the discretion to waive the conditions contained herein.

I have read and understood the conditions above
